Dimension Breach Plot point script version 2

3/26/2025 - 4/28/2025

Season 1

In a Multivers led By the God Liton, Soon this Great conflict will soon begin. On planet Mexus lies Galac who's invested in dimensional travel, though his dreams stayed unachieved due to being broke and unemployed most of the time since he's constantly bouncing from job to job. He's viewed as a joke. One day he and his Brother Merc land a job at atmosphere cleaning where you clean out all the Meteors from the atmosphere. but Galac has other plans and uses the ship given to them to do the job to get away and explore the multiverse like he always wanted and crash lands on Earth. Merc ventures upset at his brother to try and find resources while he calls for help at home, Galac on the other hand was exploring and comes across Zack who was walking home from school and after seeing Galac and being disturbed by his appearance immediately calls the authorities who capture both Galac and Merc. While in jail Merc scolds Galac for bringing them to earth and getting them stuck. Luckily for them help comes in the form of a ship from home though only Merc got picked up because Galac broke out of jail prior to their arrival due to his rage for Zack. Meanwhile in the great hall of the Multiverse where Liton and his assistant Lucky live. Liton is brought the news of multiversal trespassing of Galac.

Meanwhile on Earth Galac finds Zack and tries to kill him, while at it he creates mayhem and destruction and even destroys a school in the process. Galac gets in a state where he develops the mind of a bloodthirsty animal and starts Glowing. His species glows in this state to warn other creatures from danger since that state can make their species very violent and can potentially make them rouge and commit genocide. While Zack was trying to escape from Galac he and the kids from the destroyed school were seeking shelter. Zack hides at Derek's Mom's house while James was over there to seek shelter including a kid named Nala who escaped from the destroyed school. Galac leaves Zack for now since he's trying to evade the police. Now many People who are homeless seeking shelter at strangers' houses. Zack nor Nala remember the exact location of their homes because they're further away from here, so they stay with Derek and his mom for the while. Derek and His are reluctant at first since they aren't sure they can afford to have twice as many people Living with them.

Liton investigates the scene of Galac's destruction and tries to find him. The portal he came through was fairly close to Derek's Mom's house so Nala got curious and was mesmerized by the portal and eventually went through it. Zack, James and Derek soon followed to try and get her back out. They found themselves in the great hall of the multiverse, there were portals to all dimensions. Unfortunately for them Nala chose the most dangerous one which leads to Planet Polux. After entering all the characters find themselves in a depressed dystopian world surrounded by robots who seem to be looking for something. Once they got spotted the robots instantly started homing in on their location though right before they were caught someone took them in their house for safety. It turns out that the person who saved them is Luke's Mom and she warned them that the robots scan the area for people who aren't from here and kill them because the leader of the planet Malark doesn't want the planet to corrupt. They also meet Luke who isn't really interested, while his mom also explains to them that when too many people from one world come to a different world it corrupts due to having too many Dimension hopping immigrants.
There is a way for them to go back home and that's to sneak to Dimension stop and go through the earth portal, which is what they do. They sneak through the streets and go through the portal and find themselves in a different country. Liton from early on who was looking for Galac heads back after he got arrested and after making his way back Lucky informs him of what happened with Zack, Nala, James and Derek. So he heads there and sends them back home, leaving all of them puzzled.

Never did any of them know there's a whole multiverse out there. Meanwhile at Polux Luke's family got in trouble with Malark since through security cameras found out they were helping humans, He threatened to ban them from the planet entirely. Kyle, Malarks assistant tries and calms him down telling him that a few people coming to their planet didn't hurt anybody. Malark on the other hand doesn't wanna take any Risks of Polux being corrupted though he is exaggerating quite a bit, why? Because everyone used to have freedom on Polux. People could visit different dimensions and so did Malark, his son and his wife too. One time they had vacation over at Melody paradise but too many people from different dimensions visited it so it corrupted and Malark lost his wife while evacuating the planet, He never saw her again. Luke's family heads back home after Malarks' warning to not let in any humans. Soon after the public portals that lead to other Dimensions were shut down to limit cross Dimension activity.

Meanwhile on Earth everyone except for Zack is glad they're back, He just recently started staying at Derek's house so he obviously doesn't know anyone. He is still left puzzled about the whole dimension situation and wants to see what else is out there. The only way he can travel is through the help of Liton, who is busy helping others with their conflicts. Lucky also known as Liton's assistant sees this and wants to help but Liton while being a god can be intimidating to talk to especially since he can get a bit irritated and being 6,6 feet tall. Their relationship is distant, Though Liton has interacted way more with his previous assistants. At the Beginning of Time Liton was there watching the Multiverse through the Grand hall of the Multiverse and was given assistants since it could get quite lonely being alone there most of the time. They were seen less as helpers and more as friends. Liton would form a strong bond with his first assistant, though the big drawback is that they have limited Lifespans and Liton is Immortal, So after each death of each assistant Liton would spend less and less time with them to avoid any heartbreak. These deaths occurred so many times throughout Liton's life that It became a routine to him and he often feels nothing. Lucky his current assistant was Never told any of the pain and Heart break Liton went through leaving him puzzled why they barely Interact. Lucky insists on Showing Zack more of what's out there, He heads to earth telling Zack that he'll show him all the other dimensions without Litons permission that is. While going through them Lucky was too ignorant to know that Polux doesn't let in any humans and get instantly spotted in the Process though easily leave through using a portal. Unfortunately for them Liton found out about this. Liton Sends Zack back to Derek's Moms house assuming he lives there without Zack getting a chance to say where he actually lives. He scolds Lucky for tooring Zack through the Multiverse without his permission and In a fit of rage tells him that this is why they never interact leaving Lucky heart broken.

Meanwhile on Earth Derek and His mom wanted to do something together with Zack and Nala so they can know each other more so that having them at home won't be as awkward. They usually don't really talk much. They decide to go out to dinner with them in a restaurant. It may cost them since neither of them have ever been in the best financial position. While at the Restaurant the Waiter comes to their table to get their orders when then both her and Zack both take a glance at each other, The waiter doesn't think much of this at first but Zack finds her to be the most beautiful woman he's ever seen. Later they get their food and the day continues on as usual, Zack can't stop thinking if they have feelings for each other. He tells the others one day, James encouraged him to shoot his shot the next time they came. Back at home Zack asks Derek if he can borrow his car from time to time since he's old enough to. From then On Zack started driving to that same restaurant just to get to know more about the Waiter. While she was getting his order, Zack learned that her name is Emily and they're both the same age. Emily found him cute that he showed her this much affection.

Her Manager did warn her to not talk too much while getting orders so Emily gave Zack her phone number so they can talk without Emily getting in trouble. Zack gets the wrong message from this, Each time she came to get his order and gave him his food that talked more while Emily tried to cut down the talking. Though the manager wasn't too happy about it since it distracted her, Sometimes she even ignored others. One day when Zack came he noticed that Emily wasn't there he left and Texted her and she told him that she got fired from the restaurant. Her parents were pretty upset with her and grounded her. Everyone else who lives with Zack got upset at him for getting Emily fired. Despite getting fired Emily didn't really care much since wasn't fun for her, her real dream is pursuing art though her Parents nor siblings have shown the most support for it. Her parents want her to do more outside activities and not really appreciate and understand the beauty of art.

Zack and Emily started resorting to texting since she's grounded. Zack didn't really feel alone anymore after Galac separated him from his parents, everyone who lived with him felt happy for him. Emily hesitated at first but they both decided to have their first date. Emily didn't think much of it but she found it nice seeing Zack happy. The set place of the date was at a restaurant though not the same one from previously to avoid anyone recognizing her from getting fired. Emily didn't tell her parents that she was dating and started searching for them in the same place they were at since they knew it was her favorite. While on the date one of Emily's teachers recognized her and caught the attention of Emily's parents. Emily and her parents argued at the restaurant and later went outside and took her back home. A few weeks later Zack thought it would be a great idea to meet Emily's family to see if they get along. Things didn't really work out well, Emily's siblings were poking fun at her and Zack and her parents didn't think Zack was worthy of dating her. Things got heated at the table and Emily finally snapped, Zack got Derek's car and was about to leave until Emily texted him to stay there while upstairs in her room, packed her stuff and climbed out the window for Zack to drive her home. She basically ran away from home but not for love but just to escape from her life. Emily didn't know that Zack didn't live "At home".

Things were quite awkward once Zack and Emily got back since they didn't think running away was a good idea. Since Zack and Emily texted most of the time it was a bit awkward talking especially with everyone else since she only knows Zack. Emily was mostly mute due to still being upset with her parents who were especially upset over her running away. Her parents were gonna leave to get her but waited a bit due to the news of Galac recently breaking out of Jail. Emily didn't know that Zack was secretly texting her parents to get her because he knew that Galac was coming for him and didn't want her to get hurt. Emily and Zack did eventually grow closer together since Zack would often try to comfort her. Meanwhile over at Planet Mexus Galac was seen even more as Joke since he got him and His Brother Temporarily stuck in Jail. Merc did eventually land a Job and got more well known due to what happened on Earth being spread on the news. Merc more so felt bad for Galac since he was so invested in Dimensions and exploring them only for him to become a monster. Meanwhile on Earth Galac gets closer to Zack's location and Emily is about to get taken back home by parents who never wanna see Zack ever again.

After they Leave Galac Busts Through the door and Starts chasing Zack though the house destroying it in the process. Emily's parents Tell her about Zack secretly texting them to keep her away from Galac who allegedly glows when he's angry. They stop at a gas station and while the doors are unlocked Emily sees a glowing near Where Zack lives and Gets worried. She runs out to go back to Zack but little does she know about the dangers ahead. Galac beats the living hell out of Zack and leaves him with tons of scratches too, he does try to fight back but it doesn't do much. While this is happening Derek tries to fight Galac but fails and his Mom and Nala wait outside after calling for help. Emily does eventually Arrive only to see the horror of what's happening inside the house. She hesitates at first but she to help Zack, the fight evens a bit as they use the nearest object to throw at Galac but he is still mostly Winning while both though he does target Zack more. Eventually this is taken through the backyard and in the woods, Help does arrive and Galac Is shot Multiple Times in the head immediately Killing him. Emily still stands with scratches and Bruises but Zack is the unfortunate one left unconscious and gets taken to the hospital. The House was left completely destroyed so they had to move out and live in an apartment. After a week or two he makes a Full recovery, Both Him and Emily share a room in the apartment glad to be together. Near where they live there's a small store owned by a guy named Oliver, whenever they go there Oliver likes to tell them stories of his past.

Lucky hears about everything that happened and is glad they made it. Emily was obviously left puzzled on why a Monster of some sorts was hunting for Zack, Lucky came to him only after Asking Liton of his permission to travel to Polux. What they didn't know is that Lukes Family moved out of the city to avoid being caught so quickly. Lucky automatically teleports them there and Zack introduces Emily to them though Emily was a bit freaked out by them. They all exchanged phone numbers so they don't constantly have to Use Liton or Lucky to Travel back and Forth. They eventually head back to earth and all seems fine. Near the apartment a Mechanic named Bruno moved in next to them, Everyone especially Nala were fascinated by his work.

While on Polux after they left The entire area was scanned for any human activity and found out about the recent visit to Luke's home. Malark snaps and Comes to the Great hall of the Multiverse to ask Liton if cross dimension travel became more popular which thanks to humans and other Dimensions allowed more travel though only a limited amount. Malark doesn't want the same thing to happen again. He's been having a backup plan for months. The only way he can execute it is if no one gets in his way. He tells his assistant Kyle to meet up with him outside the city where nobody can see them. Malark tells Kyle about his plan against humanity though he hates it just like what Malark expected. Kyle tells Malark that he's gone too far though before he can say anymore Malark shoots him in the head instantly killing him. Malark has killed his childhood best friend. It was hard for him to do but he did prioritize revenge. Now that Kyle is gone Malark can now execute his plan. Recently on Earth people were gonna gather as much as possible and travel across the ocean to pour it into a volcano and try to get rid of it and discourage burning fossil fuels. Malarks plan is to attack the fleet of ships while on the ocean so that all the trash gets in the ocean and to pour the toxic blood of their species. Their blood is extremely toxic to people from other dimensions and pouring it in the ocean would make it spread quickly and due to the water cycle could slowly end all life on Earth.

Season 2

Early in the morning on Earth soldiers from planet Polux enter the trash burn facility to pour the toxic blood of their species in the containers of trash. Afterwards they enter the train that takes it to the fleet of ships, A few hours later they climb on the containers as they are being carried by a crane onto the ships. At midnight once the ships have made a good distance into the atlantic ocean the soldiers onboard call the navi planes so they can leave the ships. They make their way above deck by shooting any people in the way and pretty soon the alarms on that ship and activities and the other ships beside it are alerted by the soldiers presence. The planes arrive to pick up the soldiers and to shoot and destroy all the ships, this way all the toxic blood poured in the containers pours in the ocean. Fortunately one of the planes was shot down and the pilot in it did a kamikaze into one of the ships causing an explosion that killed everyone on board. The ships were completely destroyed and they left no survivors on them either so they couldn't alert any authorities.

The next Morning Zack and Emily planned to go and Hang out at Jame's, they rarely interacted so if they wanted to know each other then they had to start from somewhere. In the news they heard that almost half of all sea life has died overnight due to the event of what happened at midnight which humans still don't know about since there were no survivors on the fleet of ships. The company that sent the fleet of ships were completely clueless and started an investigation to try and find out why they lost contact with them. That morning as Zack and Emily were gonna go out they were gonna be hit with unpleasant weather. As the toxic water evaporated in the air it had to eventually come raining down, since it's very deadly to everyone except to people from Polux then it was gonna basically be acid rain.

Further from where they lived a huge thunderstorm hit the coast, the acid rain made all those unfortunate people who were outside drop dead, each one dropping dead within a few seconds. Shortly after the Acid thunder rain started everyone within the state got an EAS alarm and were told to find shelter. Derek calls Zack and Emily to warn them, they made it to James house just in time before they got caught in the acid thunderstorm. Oliver who was close by was quite unfortunate since his store got struck by lightning and a bit of acid rain got on him slowly killing him. Once the rain went away after Emily had an awkward introduction to James they headed back to see if everybody was okay.

When they found Oliver's shop to be in total ruins, He was very and they quickly called the ambulance and were taken to the hospital. The doctors didn't know how to help him since there is no cure for Toxic Blood healing on Earth but there are many on Planet Polux. Meanwhile on Planet Polux Lukes family were emailed by the government that all of their activity was gonna be monitored by them. Zack calls Luke if they have a cure for Oliver but as soon as that call Malark snapped and started racing towards their house. As Luke was looking for a cure Malark busted straight through the front door yelling at them, he Grabbed Luke by the throat and held him against the wall while his parents were trying to pull Malark away.

He threatened to kick them out of their home if they interact with them again. Luke hung up the call and Oliver never got the cure and ended up dying in the Hospital.

Luke grew sick of Zack and the others constantly interacting with them, He later on removed the numbers completely despising them for ruining his life. Lucky visited Earth just to see how everyone was doing, only to find ruins, Dead bodies and Wildlife everywhere. Everyone's completely clueless as to how this happened. Many Animals died from the Acid rain Causing Animal preservation to sky rocket since it was too dangerous for animals to be in the wild anymore. The news became national and People from other countries Started raiding stores and getting as many survival resources as possible. Once Lucky Zack and the others he asked how this happened and they were clueless, He headed back to the Great hall of the Multiverse and Told Liton about it. Liton suspected People from other dimensions caused this since he knew that this was impossible for it to just be Mother Nature, He's been watching Earth since the Beginning of Time and has never seen Acid Rain occur on Earth.

Meanwhile on Planet Polux Malark was planning another attack on Earth, This time their Launching nukes Filled to the brim with toxic blood on the Opposite side of the Earth from the Last attack to try and spread it across the ocean more Evenly. He was fueled by anger, Humans were still contacting people from this planet even after the Acid rain. His navy Flew over the ocean and launched the Nuke making it the second attack on Earth. The amount of toxic Blood they used this time was even Higher, So Thunderstorms might become deadlier. Though the huge explosion of the nuke slightly caught the attention of those who live nearby due to subtle vibrations. The following day near Antarctica a huge thunderstorm took place, The thunder destroyed huge amounts of Icebergs and Glaciers, not only endangering all life in that area but everyone else too. Global warming and especially the sea rise faster.

Early in the morning due to many trees dying because of the Acid rain Many found it a bit harder to Breathe. Zack and Emily were worried they'd die before they got the chance to marry. Once they got to the other apartment they would find out that Nala suffocated in her sleep due to it being a bit harder to breathe. All Life on Earth is in a Great amount and they gotta go somewhere safe. Liton couldn't stand it any longer, he had to do something to help them.

Liton reached out to other dimensions in hopes of them letting humans live with them. The only Dimension that cooperated was Planet Sorox which is home to the Knights who have fragile gas like bodies and protect themselves with Knight Armor. King Isaiah is Generous and is completely open to giving humans a new home. There's one problem and that's that not all of them can be saved. You can only have so many people from one dimension in a different one, If you have too many People from different dimensions all in one dimension that they're not from then that world gets corrupted and everyone on it dies. There is a limited number of People from one dimension to another but nobody knows the exact capacity of people without the world corrupting, they just risk it and potentially save more lives or play it safe and take less of risk but more lives from earth die. They can't just move all of them to Sorox because if so even more people die. They're gonna have to move humans to other dimensions too, even if those dimensions like it or not, though more lives would be saved. Thus the operation began to evacuate as many People as Possible, Liton opened Portals around the world that all lead to Planet Sorox.

There was no portal for Zack and the others to go through yet, Many doomsday bunkers became public for people to stay safe from excessive Thunder and Acid Rain. Many Scientist attempted to break apart Oxygen elements to try and mass produce them to potentially save many lives though it fails due to it not being physically possible. Zack and the others move to one of the doomsday bunkers including Emily's best Friend Kate and her parents. In the doomsday bunker they meet together and James gets a crush on her which Zack and Emily find funny. The bunker was separated into multiple rooms though because there were many people, Our main cast had to share one room together.

Above ground many Companies, Businesses and Industries close down due to them losing value and Everyone focusing on survival. Not only does the Entire Entertainment industry close down and many in it go Bankrupt but also the Stock market crashes too causing Unemployment to increase. Due to the High demand of Food, Water and other Survival resources Businesses that produce them increase the prices of them to increase profit even though Making money should be the least of everyone's concerns. Inflation rises at an all time high which makes survival nearly impossible for poor People. A huge mob forms in front of one of the Company Buildings and starts trashing the place though it Immediately turns into a disaster once it becomes a terrorist attack. Terrorists start throwing grenades at the place and many people get hurt and killed in the process forcing them to lower the price a bit, Though the economy is still horrible.

During the Evacuation Some of the Knights Refuse to let more people in due to them being afraid of their home being corrupted, Though humans don't know about the whole corruption thing and try to go through anyway. Both the Knights and the Humans eventually resort to violence and soon enough trying to leave Earth becomes a whole war zone in some areas. Due to the conflict during the Evacuation, the amount people expected to be evacuated by now falls behind. Their Neighbor Bruno above the surface Managed to evacuate due to some people Posting the coordinates of one of the Portals that leads to Sorox online. Meanwhile in the Doomsday bunker Our Main cast grew pretty sick of the small rooms though James didn't mind being in a room with Kate. Lucky came down and Helped them go to Polux though Kate and her parents stayed and James too. Little did they know that Malark was expecting them, from what has happened Malark sees all humans ignorant people who don't listen.

Once they entered Luke and his parents immediately tried to stop them but it was too late. Malark was already waiting at their home and Immediately tried to shoot them down. They all ran upstairs but Derek wasn't too lucky, he got shot and killed. While everyone else was hiding Zack broke Malarks gun and tried to fight him but he didn't stand a chance. Luke's parents held Malark back and Everyone escaped from the house and into the woods. Malark left and went back to headquarters, while at the woods Luke crashes out Zack and Blames him and the others for ruining his life. They leave Luke and his parents wandering off and feeling sorry, Lucky finds them in the woods and even though Luke crashed out on them Lucky tries to comfort them and sends them along with James, Kate and her parents to Sorox.

They moved in with the Knightson family which is where Loner and his Parents live, His brother Peter moved out for Knight training. Loner Was never really interested in Becoming a true Knight, it seemed too daunting and exhausting to do. He was more interested in History, Most importantly the Legend of the 3 Knights which was a Historical Event where 3 Brothers teamed up to save a Kingdom from a Horrible beast which No one has ever seen before or ever again. The Story made many speculate if the beast came from another Dimension. Despite this being passed around like the Bible, people didn't really Support Loner's dream of being something that isn't a knight. It's become the norm for All Males to be knights and Women to provide in Sorox. Pursuing Dreams Isn't really an Option, Something which Humans are definitely not looking forward to. Something which Loner never told anyone is that he has a crush on King Isaiah's daughter Princess Maria, She believes the law is unfair too. She wants to be a Knight and has a lot of potential but She just can't. Loner Does have it written in His diary which Emily Comes across when going through his room, She finds it cute and Gives Loner advice on what to say to women. Loner can finally relate to even more People who have dreams of their own instead of everyone he sees wanting to be a Knight. His parents found him happier than usual. Soon after the Mechanic named Bruno moved in next door (He'll be important later)

On Earth Things were getting even worse, Famous structures and Landmarks were slowly deteriorating due to the Acid rain making them weaker and weaker. The Statue of Liberty got destroyed by Lightning and The Eiffel tower too, causing it to come crashing down. The weather progressively becomes more Violent causing housing prices to increase. People are already being sent to Mars via spaceships. Many suffocate in their Sleep because the Acid Rain Killed all Trees causing a lack of Oxygen. Gas masks get mass produced in an effort to Save More lives. King Isaiah and Liton Tried to get in contact with More Dimensions like Mexus, They tried their hardest to convince them to allow Humans to Evacuate to their Home. At Last they Allowed the Evacuation to continue on Mexus. Yet again Liton Opens portals from different parts of the world this time that all lead to Mexus, though this time it's not Violent. Galac's Brother Merc isn't really pleased about this, Since all of these Humans roaming Around reminds him of what Happened to Galac. Eventually the Government got involved and they just simply wanted to check if People were being sent to safe new homes. The evacuation did eventually get chaotic due to the unlivable state of the Earth. Everyone was desperate to get through the portals, The guards of the portals barely stood a chance against the huge mobs trying to push through. All the portals were eventually closed to keep Mexus from Corrupting, Liton desperately tried to find any Dimension that can allow humans on. The Clocks ticking and Last minute An Alien planet agreed to continue the evacuation on their planet.

Slowly the entire population on Earth was dying, It was a whole blood bath out there. Power plants, Factories and other Structures were failing and falling apart. Once Liton Opened up all the portals across Earth they soon realized that they were too late. They checked to see if anyone was alive, walking Through Cities, Towns and Neighborhoods to only find corpses everywhere. They tried but they weren't fast enough, Later Liton told everyone involved in the evacuation the bad news. Everyone across dimensions like Sorox, Mexus and the Alien Planet had a moment of silence for all those who died on Earth. Our main cast was devastated, Emily wishes she didn't just leave her family like that and Zack never ended up Finding his Parents. Meanwhile on planet Polux Malark the person responsible for this huge loss of life sits in his office fully aware of what he has done. Malark isn't as satisfied as he thought he would be, His beef with humans has been going on for so long that he didn't care about what happened afterwards anymore. This is all he knows now. No longer will humans ever interact with the People of Polux. Or will they?

Season 3

Everyone is still devastated by what Malark has done, Liton can't just let this man kill off an entire Planet. Lition reached out to King Isaiah from Planet Sorox and proposed to him the Idea of going to war against Polux. His Highly trained army of knights would be perfect for the Job. The king hesitated at first since he was afraid of Malarks army harming his people. He eventually agreed. Liton then reached out to Mexus and Proposed the Idea of them Joining the Knights of Sorox to fight against Mexus. The Strong Beasts of that planet would be perfect for dealing damage in a war. Liton of course didn't say anything to Malark, Two armies Fighting against them would surely catch them off guard. Many other dimensions have heard about what happened to earth. Their world leaders grew concerned and spent millions upgrading their armies in case of a full on Multiverse war. Across both Mexus and Sorrox it was announced by Liton that they were going to war.

King Isaiah was quick to react by sending the younger Male Knights who had not had training yet and also sent in the Human Males to train in the army. The humans thought the law was unfair and thought that males could be more than Knights and females can be more than House wifes. A group of protesters stood close to the tower that held the king's throne and demanded equal rights as the king looked over his balcony. King Isaiah was irritated and confused, No one has ever protested in their world since people usually follow orders without questioning them. Later on Loner joined the protest too showing that his people want freedom too. Princess Maria looked over the balcony too and agreed with the people. She tells her father that Men can be more than Knights and Women can be more than house wifes. King Isaiah Eventually agrees and his daughter Princess Maria is able to train in the army. Loner is glad he made her happy despite them never meeting face to face. James and Kate decided to stay while Zack and Emily decided to go train in the army to avenge their dead families, Zack was concerned for Emily since she hasn't really fought that much before. They weren't the only ones who joined the army, a few other ones did too.

For The most part the less experienced ones in the army had plenty of time to train since there was no deadline due to everyone on planet Polux being unaware of the war. The training had many challenges like climbing, lifting weights, marathons and learning how to use and fight with a sword. Sorox uses more primitive technology and methods since Steam engines and horses are still used to travel. Emily struggled quite a bit especially when she was lacking behind during the marathons and Zack was worried that she was pushing herself too much but she insisted that she continues the training. Over at home Kate has become aware that James has a crush on her but plays along with it since she thinks it's cute.

Months go by and Mexus already has their Army ready for war, over at Sorox the humans are soon done getting a bit extra help. Once they're done Liton sends them through a Portal that goes straight to Malark's headquarters to attack. Everyone storms through the building going up floor by floor tearing apart any guards who get in the way. One of the guards at the top floor warns Malark and his son Kal about the army down below, They head to the roof to evacuate the building via helicopter. As they leave the soldiers from Mexus leaps onto the helicopter and weighs it down along with a few more too. They attack the pilot, making them crash into the building. Malark and Kal are swarmed by the army, they were beaten and thrown out the window making them fall a few stories severely injuring them in the process. One of the guards gets them in a car driving away and escaping from the scene. A few of them still follow the car, One of them was Bruno. They stopped by the hospital as Some of Malarks buff guards arrive, they proceed to shoot down almost all of the army members and Just as they're about to Kill Bruno he begs them not to and tells them that he'll team up with them. Malark tells the guards to hold back and Lets Bruno team up with them.

Everyone celebrates their victory for now unaware of what happened after Malark and Kal left the scene, Emily was cross due to Malark surviving. They weren't too hopeful since they did know they would eventually come back. They all head back home, Zack is glad it's over but Emily just wasn't satisfied. Once they arrive home Zack and Emily get their house and a few weeks later Zack and Emily get married, hopeful for a better future. Later Emily got Pregnant, during the months of the pregnancy Malark and Kal were recovering from the hospital. Malark swore to make them pay when he's fully recovered, He'll get his whole army. Once Zack and Emily's son was born they named him Daniel, by the time he was born Malark and Kal fully recovered. Liton immediately warned King Isaiah telling him they were heading to war again, this time Malark was ready. The People of Sorox and Mexus headed to battle sooner than last time since almost all the new Knights finished their training from last time. The agreed upon spot was in Polux in an open field near a City Shortly before the war Malark introduces Kal to Bruno since he knew they both had the same profession. They become friends which led Kal to ask his father why he's gonna attack the humans again if they can just be friends and get along instead. Malark soon questioned himself but it's too late. Their Military was already prepared for war, There's no turning back.

Liton opened a portal that led to the area, But Malark had other plans. Instead his entire army was heading towards King Isaiah's kingdom. Malarks army slowly gets closer with an Overwhelming amount of Aircrafts. Liton quickly sends everyone back to the Kingdom to try and protect it at all costs. Once they arrive everyone springs into action sprinting towards the army below the Aircrafts, they fight each other though the People of Polux have the unfair advantage due to them having guns. Everyone in the kingdom is told to evacuate, Zack and Emily sprint towards their house to take their son Daniel safety. Malark arrived in the battle but he was in a Mech made by Bruno, He smashed through walls and houses. The AirCrafts start sending tons of rockets down on the kingdom blowing up walls and Houses. While Princess Maria is Protecting her Father King Isaiah one of the rocket explosions sends Loner flying into the arms of Maria, He did immediately get off and both found it pretty awkward.

Once almost everyone is evacuated of the Kingdom The AirCrafts start flying towards the ocean threatening to do the same thing they did to Earth, by Dropping a Nuke full of Toxic Blood and causing Acid Rain because of the water cycle. This causes mass Panic and Chaos, Princess Maria Leads everyone to a nearby cave to stay safe for now. Emily Starts fighting Malark in his Mech with Zack shortly joining to fight too, Malark for the most part has the upper hand until uses the Mech to fly up to the Aircrafts. Liton Opens a portal that leads on top one of the bigger Aircrafts. The Army heads through the portal destroying the Aircraft and the bridge causing it to hit the other Big Aircraft and Making it fall to the ocean. Liton realizes that the Nuke full of Toxic Blood is still in the one of the Aircrafts, He Struggles to lift the Entire Aircraft and tells some of the army members to quickly remove it. Once they remove the Nuke Liton lets the Aircraft sink at last. Liton with the Nuke still in his grasp and no other way of disposing of it decides to throw it directly at the Other big Aircraft that the Rest of the Army is on. The knock back of the explosion sends it flying towards a bunch of rocky Mountains where it violently crashes. The fight still continues, The army Swarms Malarks Mech destroying it. As Bruno watches Malark fight he joins in and tries to help the others and Not Malark and tries to play it off like he is helping him.

Malark Eventually Catches on but before he can say anything he and Zack Fall and Roll down a slope and are sent over a ravine and on the other side where they are separated from the rest. Zack and Malark fight to the Death in a close battle as they both slowly climb up a Mountain. Once they make it to the top they find themselves near a cliff on the other side, Zack pushes Malark Off a cliff thinking that he killed him. Everyone watching cheers and celebrates thinking that Malark is dead. He ended up saving himself by barely grabbing on a nearby branch, He slowly Sneaks behind Zack grabbing his sword that Zack dropped on the ground. Malark who's right behind him stabs Zack through his chest with his own sword, Everyone gasped and Emily is left Screaming and Sobbing. Malark drops Zack down the mountain they just previously climbed up. He calls for backup and eventually gets picked up by a helicopter to leave the scene. Emily Sprints around the ravine towards Zack who's at the brink of death, He asks her to give their son Daniel a bright future and shortly after Dies. Everyone devastated heads back home, Everyone who hid in the nearby cave returned only to see their kingdom in ruins. While Maria and Loner were in the cave they started to become friends. Emily returns and tells everyone the bad news that Zack died. Later that night Zack was buried in the cemetery, Emily was never the same. After a long train ride Everyone moved to a different kingdom. King Isaiah wasn't the king anymore and has fallen down to citizen status.

Despite everyone trying to comfort her she didn't feel any better, She wouldn't even talk to anyone. Kate and James would often try to talk to her but she never felt like talking to them. Majority of Earth's Population is dead, Her previous homes are destroyed, Her entire family (besides her son Daniel) is dead and Lastly the love of her life, her husband Zack is dead. All of this because of Malark, He single handedly ruined her life and many others. She must make him pay, Not only did she want him dead, She wanted him to suffer and die a gruesome death to pay for all he has done. There's no way that Smug Bastard can get away with this, right? Emily went off to start training in the kingdom to become better, to become Malark's worst enemy. Everyday she would make James and Kate babysit

Daniel instead of doing it herself, she just too focused on wanting to make Malark suffer. She was too hard on herself, constantly training harder and being too hard on herself. She was training herself so much that the knights teaching her and the others thought she was doing too much and thought she did it for selfish reasons. Slowly but surely she mastered her training. She's strong, has lightning fast reflexes and strong aim. A mere shell of her past self, No longer was she the happy little Girl who loved to draw, Now she's trained to become Malarks worst Nightmare.

James and Kate weren't happy with her outcome, They wanted her to give her Son Daniel more attention, The mother that Zack wanted her to be. Malark had other plans, he wanted his army and Navy to dominate over all dimensions. He's already eliminated one dimension, His military is capable of a lot more. Ever since humans started interacting with The people of Polux Malarks grew from Irritated to a murderous dictator, he wasn't that good before Zack and the others arrived but now he's less and less about holding back. Emily reached out to Liton and proposed the Idea of fighting back against Malark, Liton aware of why she's asking, it's for revenge. He turns it down since he doesn't support the Idea of revenge and Is worried about her getting too risky and getting potentially killed. Liton has seen it all, he knows about all the revenge stories throughout the centuries. Emily is upset by his answer and sees it as him underestimating her. She goes back and tries to continue the war by herself. She heads to the king of their new kingdom and asks for his army and King Isaiah's army to join in Battle. He declines since he knows what happened to their kingdom and doesn't want it destroyed. Emily goes to Lucky to help her get to Mexus, He hesitates at first since he doesn't want to get in trouble with Liton though he does eventually agree. Through the help from Lucky, Emily asks the people over at Mexus for assistance in the war, They accept and go to more parts of their planet for assistance too. Liton has no knowledge of what Emily and Lucky are doing and has no involvement in recruiting the People of Mexus.

Emily will soon get her revenge against Malark for what he has done with a whole army of her own. When Emily was going out to battle Kate and James asked why she was going. After Emily told them why they both got upset at her telling her that she needs the permission of Liton, They also said that at the end it won't be worth it. Emily left anyway thinking it would be worth it and all the training to kill and Make Malark suffer will pay off. Lucky Transported the entire army to an open Field in Planet Polux, this time Malark came more prepared. Both army's charged towards each other to battle to the death. Lucky would often try to fight with his staff despite his only being able to open portals, though he works with his limitations. Emily dominated the battlefield often fighting and dodging with great mobility. Malark and Emily fought each other though Malark was playing dirty using unfair tactics. Eventually He stole Lucky's staff and opened up a portal in the ocean which caused water to flood the entire area. Many backed out in battle but Emily kept fighting, she just had to get her revenge on Malark. While the water was rising they Both began to fight in the water with Malark trying to drown Emily the entire time. Malark took the high ground and Climbed up the ladder of a helicopter. While they were about to leave Emily went back down to find a grappling gun and use it to get on the helicopter.

Everyone else was left behind while Malark and Emily, still hanging on his helicopter, fly to Malark's headquarters. While Malark's helicopter lands on the roof Emily drops down below to avoid getting caught. She stealthily makes her way up until she meets up with Bruno, He tells her that despite him being on "Malark's side" he doesn't like being on it. He doesn't mean harm and only teamed up with Malark to live, but he regrets it. If he's alive to only hurt others then he shouldn't be alive. He teams up with Emily to try and get back against Malark, He distracted guards without any suspicion due to the privilege of being on "Malark's side". They Both make it past security and make their way up for Bruno to finally go to the security camera room and take out the guys in it for Emily to finally make it up to the top floor. When she made it up there it turned out that he Wasn't in his office. He was actually just about to make his way up after asking Guards if they found Emily. While he went back up he comes across Bruno and sees what he did to the guards. Malark asks Bruno what happened and after telling him her shots in the head immediately killing him. Bruno was fearing that this was gonna happen but he died for what he thought was a good cause not knowing he died for carelessness. Despite being on the dark side for a bit He still died a hero.

Once Malark finally made his way back up Emily and Malark continued to fight this time Emily was completely dominating the battle. They fought on the roof though it became less of a fight more of Malark trying not to die. Emily ruthlessly sliced any guard that came in her way in half as they both made their way through the building. Malark ran into a room and slammed the shut As Emily was busting through the door Malark called Kal on his phone thinking that this is the final time they meet. Kal was in one of his college classes at this time, he stormed and drove there as fast as he could. Malark slowly started to regret Attacking Earth since that's the reason why he's in this position. Emily finally sliced the door open while fending off against a bunch of guards. This left an opening for Malark to run out and escape, Emily eager to chase him down makes quick work of the guards by brutally killing them to get them out the way. A bit of Blood from the Guards splashes on Emily, Little does she know that her careless actions put her in danger. All this time She was so focused on Killing Malark that she's even oblivious to her safety. The Toxic Blood from People on Polux is very dangerous to People who aren't from there.

Right before Emily attacks Malark She collapses to the floor struggling to get back up. Malark Knowing damn well about her careless actions. She makes one final attempt to Attack Malark by throwing her sword though it ends up falling to the floor. She starts coughing blood while Malark Yells at her saying that she shouldn't have even tried to fight him. He tells Emily dying on the floor that revenge won't get her anywhere though right after saying that he soon realizes that himself. Malark realizes that he's in the wrong too and that he shouldn't have taken such harsh actions against humans. With a change of heart he runs out to try and tell his son That he might change for the better. Meanwhile in the great hall of the Universe Lucky returned and Liton found it suspicious since Lucky was gone for a bit. Liton soon found out about the battle. He Tells Lucky to Bring James, Kate and Loner and Immediately Leaves.

Liton Arrives only to see Emily lying on the floor at the brink of Death. Liton, worried that he's too late, uses his staff to try and heal Emily. She wakes and Liton tells her to back down and leave without anything getting worse while they still can. Emily's only thought is to Kill Malark not wanting all her training wasted, Liton tells her that killing Malark will make them fight back and risk the lives of Sorox. They can't just leave, Malark is still there for them to take action, This is the time Emily thought of insisting on making Malark suffer and tries to get Liton's staff. Soon enough Liton and Emily start having a close fight over his staff. Liton, impressed by how Emily is able to keep up with eventually has his staff stolen By her. After stealing his staff Emily uses a portal to get to Malark who was just about to get to Kal. Emily attacks Malark with the staff. He tries to explain that he has a change of heart and that he's sorry for what he has done. But Emily doesn't believe a single word he says. She uses the Staff to give him a Crazy amount of Pain. Kal yells at her telling her stop and a few other guards try to stop her too. Liton Finally makes his way out the building to See Malark being brutally tortured. Emily forms a barrier around her making it impossible to stop her. Malark slowly dissolves due to his body not being able to handle the Amount of Pain He's going through. He eventually dissolves and Emily is left confused, She leaves the scene and sends her and Liton back to the Great hall of the Universe where James, Kate and Loner are. Kal is left furious, He knew he had it coming for him not knowing he had a change of heart but he still had hatred For Emily.

She gives Liton back his staff but despite that he is still furious, He yells at Emily telling her that she put everyone's lives in Sorox at risk despite her almost dying and getting a second chance to go back and still did it. Due to Polux Most likely being willing to fight back. In The Kingdom where they live there are twice as many people because they all had to move. Liton continues to yell at Emily telling her that all that effort to Malark was a huge waste of time. Even Lucky got scolded for going along with Emily's plan, Emily looks at James, Kate and Loner who all look ashamed at her. Liton sends them all home where Emily cries herself to sleep. After all that training and dedication She finally killed Malark and Made him suffer for what he did, but at what cost?

Season 4

After the Death of Malark, his son Kal was left responsible to Lead Planet Polux to great Power and Pride. He never really wanted to take his fathers place and instead was more interested in Engineering. He wasn't happy with his father killing Bruno, He now knows to punish the people responsible instead of the innocent ones. Before Galac's crashout The people of Polux had rarely seen humans before, After they weren't listening Malark assumed they were all the same. Kal's first priority is to learn for his fathers mistake and only punish the one responsible. All Kal wanted to do is make Emily pay for killing his father. Just like what Liton said, they Will fight back putting everyone on Planet Sorox in danger. He'll make sure they'll be more than ready for anything Knight's throw at them and not let in any traitors like Bruno. Over on Sorox Emily is still ashamed of what she did, James and Kate have a talk with her to let her know that even though she did something wrong they still don't hate her for it. The king called Emily to talk with her. She expected to be in trouble, The king tells her that She gets to be the leader of the army since she started this.

She heads back but has other plans. She knows what's right, she has to fix it and won't let anybody be in danger because of her actions. She suits up, get's her sword and leaves during the Middle of the night, She calls for Lucky, he soon arrives still tired. Lucky sends her to the Headquarters though hesitant because he's worried about Emily since she's going alone. She sneaks through the guards since there's less of them during night time. While Emily heads up she goes ballistic and just fights and slices through all the guards. This time she's more careful not to get the toxic blood splashed on herself. Kal wakes up not expecting Emily to go by herself his encounter. When Emily makes it all the way up to his office She's surrounded by more guards with guns along with Kal pointing a gun at her too. She surrenders and drops her sword expecting to be shot and Killed but Kal has other plans. He makes the guards hold their fire, and makes the guards choke her instead. She tries to fight back and ends up defeating and killing one of the guards, Kal uses a gadget that shoots out a rope and ties her up, This way Choking her is easier.

The next Morning James, Kate and Loner try to find Emily since she left at Midnight. Princess Maria joins in to search for Emily too, They all eventually go to the King to tell him that she went missing. Emily was supposed to lead their Army in battle against Kal's Army but that won't be possible without her. Princess Maria Asks to take Emily's place though her Father king Isaiah was a bit hesitant at first. The king accepts the offer and Lets Princess Maria lead their Army. Afterwards the Search for Emily continues until Lucky comes and tells them that Emily went to fight Kal herself. Everyone becomes very worried from hearing this since she didn't come back, Some even assumed that Emily was dead. Kate nearly breaks into tears as James tries to comfort her. Meanwhile on Planet Polux Emily wakes up and finds herself tied up against a wall In a dark room. She's glad but confused on why she's still somehow alive. Kal comes out of the shadows and tells her the reason why she's still alive. Emily is still alive because she made Kal's father Malark suffer and Kal wants to make Emily suffer but more so emotionally than physically. He said that he will capture each of her friends and kill them right in front of her, they only kill her when all of them are dead which is essentially making her die alone. She can't do anything about it except just hope that help is on the way.

On Planet Sorox the Knights led by Princess Maria were getting ready to attack Kal's headquarters. This time they want to take them down for good. While they were getting ready to attack, Lucky felt guilty for putting Emily in danger. He wanted to help her but he was too scared. Lucky and Liton despite living together never really interacted much, Liton never never really thought much of him and when he did it was to scold him. Lucky wanted to finally prove to Liton that he is more than just his helper, Not only to save Emily but also make Liton proud. He finally heads to Kal's headquarters and starts attacking the guards. It seemed easy at first but eventually he just went up the building trying not to be captured. One of the Guards ended up hitting Lucky so hard that he got knocked out.

Lucky woke up tied up in a chair sitting in front of Emily who was still tied up against the wall. Kal comes in and points a gun at Lucky, he tells Lucky to say his final words to, Kal thinks to himself wondering if He's actually gonna kill lucky. He did nothing wrong but he did attempt to save Emily so has to be a friend of hers right? He has to keep to his word. Emily, screaming and sobbing, tries to break free to save him but Lucky accepts his fate. Lucky asked Emily to ask Liton if he was a good Helper. Kal bites the bullet and pulls the trigger, Lucky dies falling over and landing on the floor with the chair. Kal is not playing any games though killing others was harder than he thought it would be, he truly meant it when he said that he'll kill all of Emily's friends in front of her though he Contemplating on just killing her and just calling it quits. Kal leaves the room leaving Emily in total despair.

The army over on Sorox was about to attack unannounced, Liton came down, sending over the entire army. Liton asked others if they have seen Lucky since he left last night to try and save Emily. Liton became worried about him and suspected him of being in Kal's headquarters. Once the army arrived they saw that Kal's army was ready too, both charged at each other and started fighting. Princess Maria led the army into their building while slicing through guards. Kal's army quickly began to dominate the battle, even Maria got shot in the leg making it nearly impossible to fight back. Many knights in battle were getting killed by Kal's army. Some of them survived Including Princess Maria and Liton sent them back home to safety. Kal's wrath still continues, his army invades Sorox through the portals that Liton left open. They attacked the kingdom and Kidnapped Emily's friends. The kingdom was trashed and was left as a graveyard for all those innocent ones killed by Kal's army.

All of Emily's kidnapped friends were taken to Kal's headquarters and were trapped in a room tied up together. Kal enters the room where Emily is tied up once again, this time Kal threatens to kill her son Daniel. This wasn't that hard for Kal to do since her son is closer to Emily than Lucky. He held Daniel in his arms pointing a gun at him, he said that he might kill her son sooner because Daniel is still a baby so he can't talk yet. Emily reached her breaking point, she screamed while finally breaking free from being tied up and charged straight towards kal. She took Daniel away from him and started beating the living hell out of Kal. Guards immediately stormed into the room and right before they could shoot Emily with Daniel in her arms she had a split second to either jump out the window or get shot. She sprints through the window and begins to fall to her and Daniel's death. All of her friends see her falling down through a window leaving them devastated.

Right before they hit the ground Liton comes in and opens a portal underneath Emily and Daniel, sending them back to Sorox. Kal sees Liton through the window and Panics, He sends in many air jets to try and kill him. Liton takes responsibility into his own hands and will finally Destroy Kal and everyone associated with him to Avenge Lucky. Liton flies with his staff and Makes the jets chase him and make them crash against mountains. Eventually he leads all of them towards Kal's headquarters. Liton teleports all of Emily's friends outside the building as they watch all of the Jets crash and completely destroy it to bits in pieces in a bunch of explosions. The destruction Kills everyone in the building including everyone in the jets too, Kal dies at last. One of the Jets that were far behind had enough time to swerve out of the way and towards Liton and Emily's friends. Liton gets him and Everyone out the way but the explosion when the jet hits the ground sends them flying back leaving Liton's staff to fall out of his hand and break on impact. Once his staff breaks it creates a small shock wave and the pieces scatter, This leaves Liton powerless. Liton is devastated, he has no way to travel, he never thought that this would happen. They can't get back home anymore, Or can they?

James remembers back when Him, Zack, Derek and Nala trying to go home they tried to get back home with cross dimension portals that were down the street. James tells everyone that they could use those portals to get back. The only problem is that they were shut around Four years ago and Liton can't get back to the Great hall of the universe. They would have to go to the people who are in charge of them and try and convince them to open the portals again. Meanwhile on Planet Sorox where a few of the pieces seemed to be scattered which get picked up by Emily and Daniel who then arrive at home and wait for the others to come back. James Calls Emily on Her Phone telling her how Polux has portals that they can use to get back home. He tells her to go ask if there are any portals that can be used on Sorox. He also reminds her of the pieces which Emily has and the others have. She just has to bring them so they can be put back together so that the staff can work again. Emily goes up to the king and asks if there are portals that can be used to travel on Sorox, He said there is but they are far away and would require multiple long train rides to get there. The portals Might not even work since no one on this planet uses them. She buys a map and right as she's about to Princess Maria volunteers to go with her since she thought it would be a good opportunity for each other. Emily can also take this opportunity to finally be there for her son Daniel.

They take the first train and the journey begins. As they get closer they get to see all of the Beautiful sites that Sorox has to offer. They go through Tunnels, Across Bridges and Across the Mountains. On Polux The others have to stay somewhere while they wait for Emily to arrive. James Leads them out the city to Luke's Parents house, They haven't seen them in a while. The Knock on the door hoping if Luke forgives them or not. His Parents welcome them inside but Luke not so much. Despite them now being able to get away with this he's still salty over them Ruining their lives earlier. They ask where Zack is and James is the one to explain to them that Zack is Dead. Luke is surprised by this news, They don't know anything that happened on Sorox during their wars with Polux. The last time He saw Zack he was yelling at him, He never got to apologize to him. Luke finally apologizes and the others forgive him in response. On the Train Emily tells Maria about Loner having a crush on her, explaining to her about him having dreams of his and wanting her to take over the Knight work for him. She finds it sweet and is sure to show her appreciation to him once they all meet, They have met before after all. During the Journey Emily found it difficult to take care of Daniel since the Coaches didn't have bathrooms to change his diapers, She could only do it after leaving a train to go to a bathroom in the train station. Days go by and the journey is almost over, during the rides Maria did offer to help Emily to take care of Daniel but she declined each time since It's her fault for not paying attention to him after Zack's death. Maria would confort Emily since she is glad that Emily notices her mistakes, Maria believes that she is going too hard on herself for it. After taking the last train ride, they took a short walk through the woods and reached the portals. It seemed to be surrounded by structures that were in ruins and looked worn down.

They get to Polux and try to find the others, Emily can't communicate with them since her phone's battery is dead. They first search through the city to see if they stayed in a hotel while they were gone. Maria Never explored the streets of Polux and was mesmerized by how modern everything looks. For Emily it felt quite uncanny for her to just walk through without anyone trying to kill her. They eventually get tired looking for the others and start to lose hope, they don't know where Lukes house is located or if the gang is even there or not. Everyone leaves Luke's home to find Emily. They eventually meet up and the others are surprised to find Princess Maria is there too. Maria goes up to Loner to kiss him on the cheek and Leaves him speechless. James and Kate are happy to see that Emily has been paying more attention to her Son daniel.

They all head back to join all the pieces of Liton's staff together, It works again! Liton is Finally able to head back to the Great Hall of the Universe. Despite being in doubt the entire time He's proud of everyone Especially Emily. She's shown a lot of growth, Liton is proud of her for taking responsibility for her actions. Since Lucky has Passed away sooner then he was supposed to, It's that time again for Liton to get another assistant. Liton from now on promises himself to never neglect any of his assistants like he did before. He may experience more heartbreak but those tears can be tears of joy looking back at all those better memories that he could have made if he became close friends with his assistants. The day finally comes, Liton gets to meet his newest assistant. The newest member and assistant Yogurt finally arrives. He may look a bit unusual but Liton is sure to change for the better.

Everyone else heads back home to the kingdom, Luckily the invasion from Polux earlier wasn't as bad as last time in the previous kingdom. It was still salvageable and not as destroyed. A week later while the kingdom was still getting repairs James and Kate had a wedding together. They have been waiting for an appropriate time to get married for a while now. All dimensions live in peace now since Kal's headquarters and everyone in it got killed. The World leaders from the other dimensions hold back their military since Planet Polux isn't a threat anymore. Princess Maria and Loner start dating and have more time for each other since she doesn't live in power anymore. Loner is thankful for Emily getting Him together with his crush Maria. Emily can finally take the time to be the Mother that Zack always wanted her to be.

The End
